

*The British American Business Council
Pittsburgh Region
In cooperation with
Carnegie Museum of Natural History*

Invites you to “A Night at the Museum”

Thursday, September 13, 2007

6:00PM – 8:00PM

Carnegie Museum of Natural History
4400 Forbes Avenue, Oakland

You are invited for a private preview prior to the grand opening of the much anticipated new exhibit, Dinosaurs in Their Time.

BABC members and associates are being offered an opportunity to participate in an exciting “sponsaurship” program offered by the Carnegie Museum of Natural History (CMNH).

CMNH is offering “sponsaurships” of dinosaurs on display in the new exhibit to companies eager to align their name with this new regional treasure—the world’s finest dinosaur exhibit, and a genuine “first-day attraction” (Pittsburgh Post Gazette).

Show your philanthropic spirit and join us for a reception on the mezzanine overlooking the soaring new atrium that showcases the dinosaurs of the Jurassic—the jewel of CMNH’s collection. Get a behind-the-scenes tour led by one of CMNH’s preeminent paleontologists, Dr. Zhe-Xi Luo

Benefits to Sponsaurs

- ensure that the exhibit exists for decades in to the future
- attract visitors from around the globe
- your name or your organization’s name displayed in perpetuity
- leverage CMNH’s collections, scientists, and exhibit spaces to help further your organization’s promotional, marketing or philanthropic goals
- customized behind-the-scenes tours
- scientists available for presentations
- exhibit spaces available for sponsaurs’ employees and customers or clients

Attendees will have a chance to win dinner at LeMont and accommodations at the Omni William Penn Hotel!
